Certified Tanning Operator Training Course Approval

Course approval will be valid for the licensing period beginning February 01, 2019 through January 31, 2021.

Course application and required documentation must be received by the Board at least 30 days prior to initial course offering to allow for the approval process to be completed.

Application and course requirements must be mailed to:

Ohio State Cosmetology and Barber Board
1929 Gateway Circle
Grove City, Ohio 43123

NOTICE TO PROVIDERS

This training course can only be approved for tanning operator certification. Board licensees will not receive continuing education hours for this course.

Individuals are required to take and pass an in-person examination at a monitored testing site. This examination may be administered either web-based or as a written examination. Individuals must score a minimum of seventy-five (75) percent on the examination in order to receive the certificate of completion. The monitoring process for the examination shall be approved by the board as part of the board's process of approving CE courses.

Items 1-4 must be submitted for initial course approval:

- 1. Course Application – All fields must be completed and application must be signed by provider.
- 2. Course Outline(s)
 - Tanning Training Manual must be included.
 - Outline of course material including timeframes.
 - Page numbers must be included on course content.
 - Course must be four (4) hours in length.

- Hours can only be given for ACTUAL education time. Registration, promotions, printing out certificates, taking test, etc. CANNOT be included in hours earned.
- Copy of test must be included.

3. Copy of Certificate of Completion - MUST include the following:
